Markdowns and Sales Events: All merchandise will be marked down an additional fifty percent (50%) after sixty (60) days. Re-Couture reserves the right to discount merchandise for sales events regardless of the consignment date.

This is a 90 day contract: Re-Couture will make a concerted effort to sell items but makes no guarantee the items will sell in the contract period. Consignors have fourteen (14) days from the date of contract expiration to pick up unsold merchandise. Consignors are responsible for claiming items upon expiration date. Upon pick up consignors are responsible for reclaiming their items off the sales floor. Unclaimed items after expiration will become property of ReCouture who may sell, donate, or otherwise dispose of these items at their discretion.

Although we take every precaution to protect your merchandise, ReCouture is not responsible for any mishandling, theft, fire, flood, or accidental damage of your items. Items that are discovered to be damaged or flawed after initial inspection and acceptance will be sold at a discount or donated to charity. Please note that we do not contact you in the event this occurs.

A consignor may pick up money from their account with a valid ID or drivers license. Checks are available on an on demand basis between the 20th – the last day of each month. Only persons who are authorized on the account will be allowed to pick up checks or access credit on account. Monies not claimed by consignor within 9 months of initial consignment date will forfeit all proceeds to ReCouture.

If a consignor wishes to take back any of their items during the contract period they may do so at any time but will be charged a processing fee of ten percent (10%) of the items asking price. A one time $5.00 fee will be charged to set up the consignment account.
